

MICROTHIOL® DISPERSS®

Description:

Microthiol Disperss is a unique fungicide used to control Powdery Mildew and many other diseases and mites on peas, greenhouse cucumbers and many other crops.

Product Features:

- Excellent dispersion characteristics.
- Excellent efficacy against targeted diseases and various mite species.
- Ideal for low volume spraying due to high dispersion and suspension characteristics.
- Excellent compatibility with other products.
- Shows excellent crop safety.
- Excellent coverage of leaf surfaces;

Mode of Action:

Inhibits sporulation

Direction for Use:

Disease Controlled:

Powdery mildew in Ladies finger, Peas, Eggplants, Tomato

Mites in Chili, Pepper, Cucurbits, Ladies finger, Peas, Eggplants, Garlic, Beetroot, Citrus

Dosage: 750g per arpent (in 250 Litres water)

Pre-Harvest Intervals : Minimum 3 days

Important point:

Do not use Microthiol Disperss at temperature above 28°C

Do not use on sulphur sensitive crops such as spinach

